- (d) conveys to Plaintiff Defendants' offer to provide to Plaintiff a $500 WalMart Gift Card, but fails to set forth clearly and conspicuously, and in close proximity to the words stating the offer, any and all material exclusions, reservations, limitations, modifications or conditions upon which Plaintiff's receipt and/or retention of the "FREE" item described in the solicitation are contingent and, therefore, it violates O.A.C. §109:4-3-02(C) and R.C. §1345.02(A);

D8956 - Q99

- (e) conveys to Plaintiff Defendants' offer to provide to Plaintiff a $500 WalMart Gift Card, but fails to disclose all of the terms, conditions and obligations upon which Plaintiff's receipt and retention of the "FREE" item are contingent clearly and conspicuously at the outset of the offer and, therefore, it violates O.A.C. §109: 4-3-04(C) and R.C. §1345.02(A);
- (f) informs Plaintiff that he is eligible to receive from Defendants a $500 WalMart Gift Card, but fails to disclose clearly and conspicuously all of the conditions that Plaintiff must meet in order to receive the prize or item of value and, therefore, the advertisement violates O.A.C. §109: 4-3-06(D) and R.C. §1345.02(A);
- (g) displays within the body of the email the names "e-ResearchGroup," "Direct To Consumer Interactive" and "RewardDept" in such a manner as to imply that these are the names of the senders of the email, but these names are fictitious names not properly registered with the Ohio Secretary of State at the time the email was sent to Plaintiff and, therefore, the use of these fictitious names constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice that violates R.C. §1345.02(A).

321. Defendants had actual knowledge of Plaintiff's claims regarding Defendants' emails since January 2008. Since the time that Defendants gained actual knowledge about Plaintiff's claims regarding Defendants' emails, the hyperlinks within the emails at issue in this case have ceased being hosted by websites.

322. Upon information and belief, Defendants willfully ceased hosting the websites to which the emails at issue in this case were hyperlinked in order to disrupt Plaintiff's claims against Defendants.

323. Without all of the graphic images within the emails at issue in this case, Plaintiff will not be able to establish all of his claims against Defendants.

324. Therefore, Plaintiff has suffered damages as a proximate result of Defendants' cessation of hosting the websites hyperlinked to the 303 emails at issue in this case.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(KNOWING VIOLATIONS OF THE OHIO CONSUMER SALES PRACTICES ACT, R.C. §1345.02)

325. Plaintiff hereby incorporates, as if fully rewritten herein, all of the foregoing paragraphs.

326. In transmitting to Plaintiff the above-described 303 Emails, Defendants have committed multiple violations of R.C. §1345.02(A), as noted above.

327. Each of Defendants' violations of R.C. §1345.02(A) was "knowingly" committed.

328. Because Defendants knowingly violated R.C. §1345.02(A), Plaintiff is entitled to:
(a) an award of statutory damages against Defendants, jointly and severally, in the amount of three times Plaintiff's actual damages or $200, whichever is greater, for each violation of R.C. §1345.02(A); and (b) an award of Plaintiff's reasonable attorney's fees and costs against Defendants, jointly and severally, pursuant to R.C. §1345.09(F).

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(DECLARATORY JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO THE OHIO CONSUMER SALES PRACTICES ACT, R.C. §1345.09(D))

329. Plaintiff hereby incorporates, as if fully rewritten herein, all of the foregoing paragraphs.

330. Plaintiff respectfully submits that, under the circumstances presented in this case, he is entitled to the Court's entry of declaratory judgment in his favor and against Defendants, pursuant to R.C. §1345.09(D), including this Court's declaration that it is an unfair and deceptive act and practice, and a violation of R.C. §1345.02(A), for a "supplier" to publish an advertisement to a "consumer" in Ohio that constitutes a "consumer transaction" and:

- (a) Use the word "free" and fail to set forth clearly and conspicuously, and in close proximity to the words stating the offer, any and all material exclusions, reservations, limitations, modifications or conditions upon which Plaintiff's receipt and/or retention of the "FREE" items described in the solicitation are contingent;
- (b) Use the word "free" and fail to disclose all of the terms, conditions and obligations upon which Plaintiff's receipt and retention of the "free" item are contingent clearly and conspicuously at the outset of the offer;
- (c) Fail to disclose clearly and conspicuously all of the conditions that must be met in order to receive a prize or item of value and;
- (d) Use a fictitious name that was not properly registered with the Ohio Secretary of State.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(INTENTIONAL INTERFERENCE WITH OR DESTRUCTION OF EVIDENCE)

331. Plaintiff hereby incorporates, as if fully rewritten herein, all of the foregoing paragraphs.

332. Upon information and belief, Defendants knowingly and/or willfully ceased hosting the websites to which the 303 Emails were hyperlinked in order to disrupt Plaintiff's claims against Defendants.

D8956 - R3

333. Without all of the graphic images within the 303 Emails, Plaintiff may not be able to establish all of his claims against Defendants.

334. Accordingly, Defendants committed the tort of intentional interference with or destruction of evidence.

335. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' tortious conduct, Defendants have proximately caused Plaintiff to suffer damages.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff hereby prays for the following relief against Defendants, jointly and severally, as to each off the foregoing claims:

A. An award of statutory damages against Defendants, jointly and severally, in Plaintiff's favor in the amount of $200 pursuant to R.C. §1345.09(B), for each violation of R.C. §1345.02(A);

B. An award of Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, pursuant to R.C. §1345.09(F);

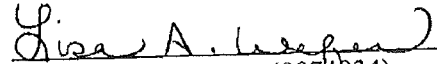

C. Declaratory judgment against Defendants in Plaintiff's favor, pursuant to R.C. §1345.09(D), as requested hereinabove;

D. A preliminary and permanent injunction prohibiting Defendants from transmitting any more advertisements to consumers in Ohio in violation of R.C. §1345.02(A);

E. Pre- and post-judgment interest on all damages awarded; and

F. All such other relief, legal and equitable, as permitted by law.

Respectfully submitted,
